

NORTHERN NEW MEXICO REGIONAL ART CENTER
Spring Celebration and Benefit in the Misión Museum

Plaza de Española

Thursday, April 26 from 4-8pm

SHOES FOR THE SANTO NIÑO

Excerpts from the one-act children's opera presented by Santa Fe Opera Education and Community Programs

Española High School Chorus

Ballet Folklórico Children's Dance Ensemble
6:30 – 8pm

Advance Tickets for the Performance in the Misión Museum
Children and Youth Ages 6 – 18 $2 Adults $10

At the Door $5 and $15

“Santo Niño Donors” who contribute $100 will receive an invitation to a reception in the Convento Gallery, a ticket to the performance and a tin retablo of the Santo Niño created by Clare Cresap Villa

Donor Reception
4-6pm

Officiating

Española Mayor, Alice Lucero

Honorary Chairs

Archbishop Michael Sheehan, Archdiocese of Santa Fe
(represented by Monsignor Jerome Martinez y Alire)
Rabbi Malka Drucker, HaMakom, Santa Fe
Pastor John Trujillo, Zion Worship Center, Pojoaque

Co-Sponsors

Española YMCA Teen Center, CYFD, Española Valley Opera Guild

Additional Programs on April 26

Española Community Arts Education Center, 702 Bond Street
Child Abuse Prevention, Awareness and Recruitment
Free and Open to the Public 5 - 6pm

Children Youth Families Department (CYFD) Talent Show
Student Art Exhibition in the Community Arts Education Center
To Honor Child Abuse Prevention Month

BONUS

FREE pre-benefit performance on Saturday, April 21st

Santa Fe Spring Opera Tour

4pm in the Misión Museum on the Plaza de Española

For Tickets and Information Call 505-500-7126